

AUC TO HOST IMF's FIRST DEPUTY MANAGING DIRECTOR

WHAT

A lecture, "The Egyptian Economy: Growth and Job Creation," organized by the School of Business at The American University in Cairo (AUC). The lecture will discuss the outlook for the Egyptian economy as well as the prospective opportunities for growth and job creation.

WHO

Speaker is David Lipton, first deputy managing director of the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Lipton was previously the special assistant to the President of the United States, and served as senior director for international economic affairs at the National Economic Council and National Security Council at the White House.

The lecture is moderated by student Nour Beshir, vice president, Business Association at The American University in Cairo.

WHERE

Abdul Latif Jameel Hall, Room 1053, AUC New Cairo

WHEN

Monday, May 7, 2018; 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM

MEDIA COVERAGE

Media interested in coverage should contact Farah Saafan at 2615.2694; 01274745554 farah.saafan@aucegypt.edu. Press will be required to present valid credentials.

