

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
September 18, 2017

CONTACT:
p.spokesman@op.gov.eg

President El Sisi Meets Saudi Ambassador to US

President Abdel Fattah El Sisi met on Sunday with the Saudi ambassador to the US, Prince Khaled bin Salman, at his residence in New York.

The Saudi ambassador conveyed the greetings of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, King Salman bin Abdulaziz and the greetings of the Crown Prince and first deputy prime minister of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Prince Mohammed bin Salman. Prince Khaled bin Salman affirmed the strong historic relations between the two countries and the Kingdom's keenness on enhancing them across various fields.

President El Sisi affirmed that Egypt values the outstanding relations that bind the two countries and peoples and noted the importance of strengthening them at all levels so as to enhance Arab solidarity in addressing various challenges that the Arab region is facing.

The meeting touched on a number of issues of mutual interest, particularly ways to reach political solutions to crises in the region so as to put an end to the people's humanitarian plight and protect countries' resources.

##