SHALAKANY ELECTS 2 NEW PARTNERS

Cairo, Egypt – Shalakany are delighted to announce the election of Mariam Fahmy and Adam El Shalakany to the partnership. Both partners started their careers with Shalakany and have developed into recognized leading lawyers in their respective fields.

Mariam Fahmy is specialized in Banking, Project Development and Project Finance and has worked on various complex cross-border financing projects, including most recently the Gabal El Zeit 250 MW Wind Farm IPP project, the first Wind Farm IPP project tendered under a BOO structure. Mariam was recently recognized as a Rising Star by IFLR 1000.

Adam El Shalakany specializes in Dispute Resolution, with a particular focus on alternative dispute resolution. Adam has worked on a number of highly complex dispute resolution matters, including competition law disputes and investigations, several ongoing investor state arbitrations, various commercial and construction cases dealing with governing laws from across the region.

Dr. Khaled El Shalakany, the Managing Partner of Shalakany, said: “we are very pleased to have Mariam and Adam join the partnership. Their election reflects our and the market’s confidence in their unique abilities and underlines our commitment to creating the right environment for talented lawyers to develop and realize their full potential”.
