SHALAKANY ELECTS A NEW PARTNER

The Firm Welcomes Omar Sherif to the Partnership

Cairo, Egypt – Shalakany are delighted to announce the election of Omar Sherif to the partnership. Omar started his career with Shalakany and has developed into a recognized leading lawyer in his area of practice.

Omar is specialized in Corporate, Mergers & Acquisitions and Capital Markets and has worked on various complex cross-border transactions, including most recently assisting VEON Group with the Mandatory tender offer to acquire up to 100% of the shares of Global Telecom Holding, assisting Emaar Group on the IPO of Emaar Misr, assisting Engie with the sale to Neptune Oil & Gas of a majority stake in Engie's exploration and production business for USD 3.9 billion and assisting Sealed Air Corporation with the sale of its Diversey Care division and the food hygiene and cleaning business within its Food Care division to Bain Capital Private Equity for approximately USD 3.2 billion.

Omar was recognized as a Rising Star by IFLR 1000 in 2017 and 2018 and was recently awarded the Rising Star Award by the IFLR, receiving this accolade as a Senior Associate who has worked on and led a number of very impressive deals over the last 3 years. The IFLR Rising Star Award was only awarded to 4 of the top Senior Associates across the Middle East and Omar was the only Senior Associate to be awarded outside the Dubai market.

Dr. Khaled El Shalakany, the Managing Partner of Shalakany, said: “we are very pleased to have Omar join the partnership. His election reflects our and the market’s confidence in his unique abilities and underlines our commitment to creating the right environment for talented lawyers to develop and realize their full potential”.
