

Carbon Holdings appoints Hala El-Mohandes as Deputy CEO of Project & Export Finance

Hala El-Mohandes joins Carbon Holdings from Export-Import Bank of the United States and brings a wealth of experience to the existing strong management team.

4 February 2019

(Cairo, Egypt) – Carbon Holdings, a mid-to-downstream petrochemical company and catalyst of industrial development in Egypt, is delighted to welcome Hala El-Mohandes as Deputy CEO of Project & Export Finance. Hala will lead on securing appropriate, sustainable funding streams for Carbon Holdings as it works to fulfill its strategy to become one of the world’s leading integrated petrochemical producers.

“During this critical point in Carbon Holdings’ growth story, we can think of no better person than Hala to join the Carbon Holdings team,” said Basil El-Baz, Chairman and CEO of Carbon Holdings. “She has a wealth of experience in the MENA region and a fantastic track record in completing high-profile financings that will be instrumental for the company going forward. Her appointment further strengthens the first-class leadership team that we have at Carbon Holdings.”

Prior to joining the Group, Hala was Vice-President of the Project Finance Division at the Export-Import Bank of the United States (US Ex-Im Bank), where she worked for 27 years. Whilst working at Ex-Im Bank, Hala led and closed 28 project finance transactions totaling over US$16 billion in Ex-Im Bank exposure and covering US$90 billion in total project costs. These included the Sadara Chemical Company project in Saudi Arabia, which represents the largest financing project in the history of Ex-Im Bank totaling US$5 billion and the EBIC Ammonia project (formerly owned by Carbon Holdings). She has also closed transactions for Australia-Pacific Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) project, Papua New Guinea (LNG) project, the Emirates Aluminum project and the Abu Dhabi’s sovereign wealth fund, the Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan Oil Pipeline project, Oman (LNG) Project, the three Enka BO power projects in Turkey in addition to several telecommunications projects in Mexico.

In addition, Hala has 16 years of commercial banking experience that she gained while working at Chase-National Bank of Egypt (currently CIB), the National Bank of Egypt and the National Bank of Washington.

“I am delighted to be joining Carbon Holdings, and I would like to thank the entire Carbon Holdings team for their very warm welcome,” said Hala El-Mohandes, new Deputy CEO of Project & Export Finance. “I look forward to being part of Carbon Holdings’ exciting journey, to contributing to its growth and working with and learning from its excellent leadership team.”
