Report on Limited Auditing of Consolidated Financial Statements To M/s. Members of Board of Speed Medical Co. S.A.E.

Introduction

We conducted the limited auditing on the consolidated financial position statement attached hereto relating to Speed Medical Co. "S.A.E - Egyptian Joint Stock Company" on June 30, 2021 in addition to consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income, change in equity and cash flow for the period ending on the said date, as well as summary of significant accounting policies and other supplementary notes. The Management shall be responsible for preparation and fair and clear presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the rules of preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements of the companies in addition to the principles of recognition under the respective Egyptian laws and regulations. Our responsibility shall be limited to presentation of conclusion in relation with the consolidated financial statements in accordance with our limited auditing.

Scope of Limited Auditing

We conducted our limited auditing in accordance with the Egyptian Standard on Limited Auditing No. <2410> "Limited Auditing of Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company by the Auditor". The limited auditing includes auditing of the consolidated financial and accounting statements and application of analysis procedures in addition to other limited auditing procedures. The scope of the limited auditing shall be decreased substantially than the process of audit in accordance with the Egyptian Audit Standards. Therefore, we cannot make sure that we know all significant matters that were discovered during audit. Thereupon, we will not express an opinion of audit in relation with these consolidated financial statements.

Conclusion

In respect of our limited auditing, we have not noted that there is something that can make us believe that the attached consolidated financial statements are not fairly and clearly presented in all significant aspects on the financial position of the Company on June 30, 2021 in addition to its financial performance and consolidated cash flow for the six months ending on the said date in accordance with the Egyptian Accounting Standards.

accounting estimations used and the personal judgments applied at preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

Egyptian Accounting Standards require that the most recent versions are referred to by other bodies concerned with developing accounting standards and using a framework and concepts similar to accounting standards and philosophies and other practices acceptable in the industry, to the extent at which all these concepts do not conflict with the requirements contained in Egyptian Accounting Standards dealing with similar and relevant topics, definitions, bases of recognition and concepts of measurement of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses provided in the framework of development and presentation of financial statements, when there is no an Egyptian Accounting Standard or legal requirements showing the accounting processing of certain balances or transactions.

Topics that are not addressed by the Egyptian Standards in processing shall be subject to International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) until Egyptian Standards addressing these topics are issued.

2/1/b Basis of Financial Statement Consolidation:

Subsidiary:

Data of the Subsidiary (Speed Hospitals Company LLC) have been consolidated from the date of acquisition, therefore, the corresponding figures of Income, Comprehensive Income, Cash Flows and Equity statements reflect the figures of the parent company independently. As to the financial position, the corresponding figures present the financial position of the consolidated financial statements as on 31 March 2021 AD.

The Subsidiary shall be consolidated entirely as from the date of control transfer to Speed Medical Co., and shall be excluded from consolidation as from the date of control loss.

The accounting policies applied to the Subsidiary shall be changed when necessary to ensure stability of the accounting policies applied at both companies.

Consolidated Financial Statements include the financial statements of the Subsidiary as follows:

Other Provisions

Provisions are recognized when there is a current legal or indicative liability because of previous events. This likely requires that materials are used to settle these liabilities, with possible reliable estimation for the value of this liability. The company audits and revises the provision on the date of preparation of each balance sheet to present the best current estimation, by seeking appropriate consulting experience of an expert.

2/2 – Foreign Currency Translation:

- The financial statements are prepared and presented in Egyptian pound, the Company's dealing currency.
- Foreign currency transactions are initially recognized using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of transaction.
- Assets and liabilities of a monetary nature are translated into foreign currencies using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the financial position. All differences are included in the statement of profits and losses.
- Non-monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies that are measured at historical cost are translated using the exchange rates prevailing at the date of initial recognition.
- Non-monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies that are measured at fair value are translated using the exchange rates prevailing on the date on which the fair value is determined.

2/3 – Fixed Assets:

Fixed assets appear in historical cost minus accumulated depreciation and historical cost includes all expenses related to owning the asset and making it valid for use for the purpose of preparation. Straight-line method of depreciation shall be used, so that asset value shall be decreased to salvage value through the estimated productive life, except for lands that are not considered depreciable assets.

The following are applied fixed assets depreciation rates:

2/4 Impairment:

2/4-1 Impairment of financial assets:

The company determines, at the date of each financial position, whether there is objective evidence to the impairment of a financial asset under the amortized cost model or a group of financial assets. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is considered to have impaired if, and only if there is objective evidence of impairment caused by the occurrence of one or more events after the initial recognition of the asset and the effect on the estimated cash flows of a financial asset or group of financial assets that can be estimated reliably.

2/4-2 Impairment of non-financial assets:

The company determines, at the date of each financial position, whether there is an indication that an asset has impaired when the book value of the asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable value. In such case the is considered as impaired and therefore is reduced to its recoverable value, and the impairment loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

The loss resulting from the impairment of value that was previously recognized shall be refunded only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable value since the last loss resulting from the impairment was recognized. The refund of the loss resulting from the impairment is limited so that the book value of the asset does not exceed the recoverable amount or the book value that would have been determined if the loss resulting from impairment of the asset had not been recognized in previous years. The refund of the loss resulting from impairment of value is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

2/5 – Trade Debtors:

Trade debtors are proven with invoices' original sum minus any decrease or decline in such debtors' values. Such decrease or decline in debtors' values is established, when there are objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all due amounts, according to the original contractual conditions. Such decrease or decline represents the difference between book value and recoverable value and is represented in expected cash flows. Cash flows are deducted by using market interest rate for similar debtors, if this is effective.

2/6 – Cash and Equivalent:

Cash and equivalent are represented in cash in treasury and banks for the purposes of presentation of cash flows' statement. Cash and equivalent include cash in treasury and current accounts at banks. Indirect method was used to prepare cash flows' statement.

(All amounts stated in Notes are in Egyptian Pounds unless mentioned otherwise.)

2/7 – Revenue Recognition:

Revenue is recognized and proven when providing service for the client.

Revenue is proven according to the following:

Revenue is recognized to the extent that there is a sufficient degree of certainty that economic benefits related to the transaction will flow to the Company and the Subsidiary and the revenue will be measured in a reliable manner.

Revenue is recognized when the following conditions are confirmed according to Accounting Standard No. (11)

- Revenue value is measured accurately.
- The flow of economic benefits related to the transaction is ensured.
- Accurate measurement of the degree of process completion is ensured.
- Measurement of related costs is ensured.

2/8 – Reserves:

2/8/1 − Statutory Reserve:

According to Company's Articles of Association, 5% of net profit is put aside to establish the statutory reserve. Such percentage is no longer put aside, if such reserve reaches 50% of Company's issued capital. Whenever such reserve decreases, deduction shall be reapplied.

2/8/1/1 Statutory Reserve of the Subsidiary:

Speed Hospitals Company

According to Company's Articles of Association, 5% of net profit is put aside to establish the statutory reserve. Such percentage is no longer put aside, if such reserve reaches 50% of Company's issued capital. Whenever such reserve decreases, deduction shall be reapplied.

The General Assembly may use the reserve to fulfill the purposes approved by the General Assembly according to Board suggestion.

2/9 – Income Taxes:

Income tax shall be calculated according to the Egyptian Tax Law No. 91 of the Year 2005 and executive regulations thereof. Income tax for period's profits and losses shall include both the global tax and the deferred tax. It shall be proven in income statement, except for income tax related to equity items, which shall be proven directly within equity. Income tax on net taxable profit shall be proven, using tax rates applicable on financial statements preparation date, in addition to tax differences in past years.

2/10 - Deferred Taxes:

Deferred tax resulting from temporary time differences between assets' book value and liabilities, according to accounting base and its value according to tax base shall be recognized. Deferred tax value shall be determined based on the expected method used to achieve or settle assets' values and liabilities, using tax rates applicable on balance sheet preparation date. Resulting deferred tax assets shall be recognized, when there is a great potential for gaining profits that could be taxable in future through which such asset can be beneficial. Deferred tax assets value decrease shall be equivalent to the value of the portion through which the expected tax benefit shall not be achieved through the coming years.

2/11 - Appropriations:

Appropriation is recognized when there is a current legal or deductive liability as a result of prior events and it is likely that such matter requires using resources to settle such liabilities, with the possibility of establishing a reliable estimation of such liability's value. When it is expected to recover such appropriation or portion thereof as in such case when there is an insurance coverage, the value expected to be recovered shall be recorded as an independent asset only if such recovery is highly confirmed. On the date of each balance sheet, the previously established appropriations shall be examined and settled to reflect the best current estimation. If it is unlikely that there shall be outflow including economic benefits to settle the liability, the appropriation shall be repaid.

The provisions reached an amount of EGP 4,871,569 (only four million eight hundred seventy-one thousand nine five hundred and sixty-nine Egyptian pounds), and they represent provisions for potential liabilities with expected claims from some bodies and agencies regarding the company's activities. The information normally published in accordance with the Egyptian Accounting Standards has not been disclosed, because the management believes that doing so may severely affect the outcome of negotiations with these bodies and agencies. The management reviews these provisions annually and the amount provided is prepared according to the latest updates, discussions and agreements with these bodies and agencies.

 2/12 – Fiscal Year:

Fiscal year commences in January and ends in December, except for Company's initial term which commences from 28-12-2015 to 31-12-2016.

2/13 – Creditors and Receivables:

Creditors are proven by nominal value and liabilities are recognized (receivables of values to be paid in future for the received services).

(All amounts stated in Notes are in Egyptian Pounds unless mentioned otherwise.)

2/14 – Expenses:

All activity expenses are recognized, including administrative and general expenses, and they shall be inserted in income statement for the fiscal term in which such expenses were incurred, based on the principle of accrual.

2/15 – Employee Benefits:

1. Insurance and Pension System:

Company shall be obliged to pay its subscription fees to General Pension and Social Security Authority according to rules stated in Social Insurance Law. Company shall not be accountable for any other liabilities once it fulfills its liabilities. Conventional subscriptions shall be recognized as periodical costs in their maturity periods and shall be inserted within employment costs.

2. Employee Profit Share:

Group companies governed by the Egyptian Companies Law shall pay employee profit share, which is equivalent to 10% of distributed cash profits. Employee profit quota shall be recognized as a portion of equity profit distributions and as liabilities when being approved by General Assembly for each company's stakeholders.

2/16 - Loans and Advances:

Loans are first proven by collected amounts minus loan acquisition cost. The loans are subsequently shown at the amortized cost using the effective interest rate method, and the income statement is converted by the difference between the amounts received (less the cost of obtaining the loan) and the value that will be fulfilled over the course of the borrowing period. The fair value is determined for the part that represents a liability for the convertible loan. Such liabilities are initially recognized for this value. Liabilities are shown subsequently at the amortized cost using the effective interest rate method until the loan conversion date or maturity date, whichever is earlier. The difference between the received amounts and the fair value of the part that represents a liability, as part of the equity. Loans and advances are classified as current liabilities unless the group has an unconditional right to delay the settlement of those liabilities for a period of no less than 12 months after the date of the consolidated financial statements.

2/17 Cash Flow Statement:

The consolidated cash flow statement is prepared using the indirect method. For the purposes of preparing the consolidated cash flow statement, the item of cash and cash equivalents includes balances of cash, current accounts, and deposits with banks, which mature within three months.

2/18 Inventory:

The inventory is evaluated at the cost or net recoverable value, whichever is less. The cost includes all the costs and expenses that the company incurs to bring the inventory to its normal status. The net recoverable value is the estimated price for sale through the normal activity less any cost required for the completion the sale process. The cost is determined according to the basis of the weighted average.

2/19 Investments:

2-19-1- Investments in Affiliated Companies:

Investments in affiliated companies are such investments in companies where the company has control. Control is presumed to exist when the holding company, whether directly or indirectly through the affiliated companies, controls the investee company with its ability to control the financial and operational policies of the company, in order to obtain benefits from its activities, except for those exceptional cases in which it is clearly apparent that such ownership does not represent control.

Investments in affiliated companies are accounted for in the independent periodic financial statements at cost, including the cost of acquisition. In case of impairment of those investments, the book value is adjusted for the value of this impairment and it is included in the statement of profit or loss for each investment separately.

2-19-2- Investments in Sister Companies:

Investments in sister companies are such investments in companies where the company has effective influence but it is not an affiliated company or a share in a joint venture. Effective influence is assumed when the company owns, either directly or indirectly through its affiliated companies, 20% or more of the voting rights in the investee company, except in those cases in which it is clearly evident that such ownership does not represent effective influence.

Investments in sister companies are accounted for in the independent periodic financial statements at cost, including the cost of acquisition. In case of impairment of those investments, the book value is adjusted for the value of this impairment and it is included in the statement of profit or loss for each investment separately.

2/20 Related Party Transactions:

Related Parties are represented in sister companies, major shareholders, directors, and the top management of the company. They also represent the companies controlled or subject to joint control or effective influence by such related parties. The terms and pricing policies for transactions with related parties are approved by the Board of Directors.

2/21 New Publications and Amendments to Egyptian Accounting Standards:

On 28 March 2019, the Minister of Investment issued Decision No. 69 of 2019 amending some provisions of the Egyptian Accounting Standards, which include some new accounting standards and amendments to some existing standards. Such amendments were published in the Official Gazette on 7 April 2019. The Group has applied the following standards, amendments and interpretations for the first time during its annual reporting periods, as of January 1, 2019: Activated Issues:

An Egyptian Joint-Stock Company Established As Per the Provisions of Law No. 159 of the Year 1981

Supplementary Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements For Fiscal Period from 01-01-2021 to 30-6-2021 A.D.

(All amounts stated in Notes are in Egyptian Pounds unless mentioned otherwise.)

- Egyptian Accounting Standard No. (22) "Earnings Per Share" All establishments that apply Egyptian Accounting Standards must calculate and present the earnings per share, in accordance with the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. (22)
- Egyptian Accounting Standard No. (49) "Lease Contracts" Phase 1 (lease contracts subject to Law No. 95 of 1995 (the usufructuary right of the leased asset) and a financial obligation to pay the rent installments are recognized in the Financial Standing Statement. Short-term and small-value lease contracts are excepted)

Inactivated Issues:

- Some new and amended accounting standards that are not mandatory for financial statements for the fiscal years starting on or after January 1, 2020 have been published on April 12, 2020. The Financial Supervisory Authority decided to postpone the application of amendments to the Egyptian Accounting Standards on the Periodic Financial Statements, and limit the same to the Annual Financial Statements until the end of 2020.

Name of the Standard No. 47 "Financial Instruments" Standard

Nature of the Change

- Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 47 deals with classification, measurement and elimination of recognition of financial assets and financial liabilities, and introduces new rules for hedge accounting and the new impairment model for financial assets.
- The Group reviewed its assets and financial liabilities. It expects the below effect after applying the new Standard on 1 January 2020. On 12 April 2020, the Financial Supervisory Authority decided to postpone the application of amendments to the Egyptian Accounting Standards on Periodic Financial Statements, and limit the same to the Annual Financial Statements until the end of 2020.
- The company's financial assets consist of the following:
 - Trade Receivables
 - Term Deposits
 - Cash and Cash Equivalents
 - Related Parties

Impact

- Trade receivables, amounts owed from related parties and balances with banks are debt instruments that are currently classified as loans and receivables and are measured at amortized cost in accordance with Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 26. The Group has estimated that it meets the conditions of classification at amortized cost according to the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 47, as they are cash flows from the original payments and interest only. The company's business model is to hold and collect debt instruments.
- There will be no effect on the Group's recognition of financial liabilities, as the new requirements affect the recognition of financial liabilities recognized at fair value through profit or loss, and the Group does not have any of these liabilities. The rules for de-recognition have been transferred from the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 26 "Financial Instruments": "Measurement and recognition" and have not been changed

Supplementary Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements For Fiscal Period from 01-01-2021 to 30-6-2021 A.D.

(All amounts stated in Notes are in Egyptian Pounds unless mentioned otherwise.)

- The new impairment model requires recognition of impairment provisions based on expected credit losses instead of only incurred credit losses, as is the case according to Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 26. It applies to financial assets classified at amortized cost and debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income and the assets of the contract according to the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 48 "Revenue from contracts concluded with the customers", rent debit balances, assignment of assumptions and some financial guarantee contracts, based on the evaluations carried out to date.
- The new standard also introduces expanded terms of disclosure and changes in presentation. It is expected that they will change the nature and size of the group's disclosures regarding its financial instruments, especially in the year in which the new standard is applied.
- The management has not yet completed the evaluation of the effects of applying the Standard on the Group's financial statements.

Date of mandatory application/ Date of implementation by the Group • It applies for the fiscal periods that start on or after 1 January 2020. The Group will apply the new rules retrospectively with effect from January 1, 2020 taking practical measures permitted under the Standard. Comparative figures for 2019 will not be modified

Name of the Standard

Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 48 "Revenue from contracts concluded with the customers"

Nature of the Change

- A new standard has been issued for recognition of revenue, to replace the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 11, which covers contracts for the sale of goods and services, and the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 8, which covers construction contracts
- The new standard is based on the principle of revenue recognition when transferring control of goods or services to a customer.

Impact

• The management has not finished evaluating the effects of applying the new standard on the Group's financial statements, and measuring the revenue for all existing contracts under the model of the Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 48, consisting of five steps.

Date of mandatory application/ Date of implementation

• Mandatory for the fiscal years that start on or after 1 January 2020 The company intends to apply the new Standard by using a modified approach by applying retrospectively. This means that the cumulative effect of the application will be recognized in the retained earnings as of January 1, 2020, and that the comparative figures will not be modified by the Group on April 12, 2020. The Financial Supervisory Authority decided to postpone the application of amendments to the Egyptian Accounting Standards on the Periodic Financial Statements, and limit the same to the Annual Financial Statements until the end of 2020.

Name of the Standard

Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 49 "Lease Contracts": Phase 2 (Lease Contracts) except for those that were subject to Law No. (95) of 1995

Nature of the Change

• Egyptian Accounting Standard No. (49) on Lease Contracts was issued, requiring application on two phases. Phase 1 is related to lease contracts that were subject to Law No. (95) of 1995 and is applicable during the fiscal periods starting on or after 1 January 2020. The above note indicates the effect of applying Phase 1 on the financial statements. Phase 2 is related to lease contracts, except for those that were subject to Law No. (95) of 1995 and is applicable during the fiscal periods starting on or after 1 January 2020.

Impact

• The Group formed a team for Standard application project, and it turned out that the Group has contracts that are subject to Phase 1. The application has been made and there is no effect on the earnings retained at the beginning of the period or the earnings of the year, because the contract subject to the Standard has been concluded in 2019. As for Phase 2 of Egyptian Accounting Standard No. (49), the team reviewed the lease arrangements except for those that were subject to Law No. 95 of 1995 in the Group, in the light of the new lease accounting rules.

Date of mandatory application/ Date of implementation by the Group

• The Group will apply Phase 2 of Egyptian Accounting Standard No. 49 to the operational lease contracts as of the mandatory date of implementation starting on January 1, 2020. The Group intends to use the practical means provided by the Standard, and the comparative figures of the year will not be modified before the initial application of the Standard. The assets of usufructuary right, which arise of the operational contracts, will be measured by the lease liability amount at the date of the initial application (amended by any advance or due lease expense). On 13 April 2020, the Financial Supervisory Authority decided to postpone the application of amendments to the Egyptian Accounting Standards on the Periodic Financial Statements, and limit the same to the Annual Financial Statements until the end of 2020

2/22 Assets Reserved for Sale:

The Company measures the non-current asset classified as assets held for sale on the basis of the book value or fair value less the selling costs, whichever is the lower.

3- Sectors Report:

Reporting on business sectors is done in a consistent manner with reports submitted internally to senior management, which takes decisions related to resource allocation and assessment of sector performance in the Group. The sector reports are presented to the group on a corporate basis, as each affiliated company is considered a separate business sector.

The following is a summary of each sector that has been presented for the whole year (noting that the consolidated financial statements have been prepared according to the actual acquisition date)
