FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cairo Celebrates the Grand Opening of the Ultra-Modern Hyatt Regency Cairo West

CAIRO (February 20th, 2022) – After its soft opening in October 2021 and ranked “Number 1 in Giza destination” out of 131 hotels by TripAdvisor after only 3 months from opening, and “Traveler Review Awards 2022” by Booking.com, ALDAU Development - Member of Sami Saad Holding, brings back the international Hyatt brand to Egypt with a grand event at its newest city hotel Hyatt Regency Cairo West.

With its distinctive, situated inside Pyramids Heights Business Park, on the highest land of Giza to give its guests a magnificent view of the Great Pyramids and Cairo city, very close to the Grand Egyptian Museum, Hyatt Regency Cairo West is not only designed to offer a technologically-enabled and a contemporary accommodation, but it is the first ultra-modern, urban hotel in Cairo West area, with 250 contemporary guestrooms & suites, an array of innovative food & beverage concepts, meeting residence services & facilities, Pure Spa, and lots of other facilities that will take place for the first time in Cairo.

The grand opening lit up the sky of Cairo with festivity and was honored to have the presence of the Minister of Tourism and Antiquities Dr. Khaled El Enany, Group President of Hyatt Hotels (EAME/SMA) Mr. Peter Fulton, the Chairman of ALDAU Development Eng. Bassel Sami Saad, Governor Ahmed Rashed, along with prominent businessmen, ambassadors, entrepreneurs, and Egypt’s beloved celebrities and significant influencers.

Hyatt Regency Cairo West aims to redefine the scene of modern hospitality by introducing Service Excellency and innovative food & beverage concepts that fruitfully shape this hotel to be “The Hub” space for leisure, corporate and social get-togethers.
