Tenth of Ramadan for Pharmaceutical Industries and Diagnostic Reagents (Ramedia) S.A.E. acquires a fast-growing anticonvulsant which grew at 2019-21 CAGR of 226%

15 June 2022 | Cairo, Egypt

Tenth of Ramadan for Pharmaceutical Industries and Diagnostic Reagents (Ramedia) S.A.E., (RMDA.CA on the EGX), a leading Egyptian pharmaceutical company, announced today that it has concluded the acquisition of anticonvulsant molecule sold under the name “Lacovimp”, advancing further in the Group’s previously communicated strategy to grow its portfolio through the purchase of existing fast-growing molecules with an established market presence.

Lacovimp is used to treat partial-onset seizures. It is also used with other medicines to treat primary generalized tonic-clonic seizures. It acts on the central nervous system (CNS) to reduce the frequency and severity of seizures. It is the fastest-growing product within the local market for its corresponding API, recording a 2019-21 sales CAGR by value of 226%, according to IQVIA, far exceeding growth in the overall market for the molecule, which came in at 54% during the same period. Its resulting market share has grown significantly between 2019 and 2021, from 11% to 49%. The product is available in two concentrations, 50mg (at a public price of EGP 139) and 100mg (at a public price of EGP 234) and generates a GPM margin north of 70%. On a full year basis, Lacovimp is forecasted to generate revenues c. EGP 24 million with an EBITDA contribution north of EGP 8 million.

Commenting on the transaction, the Group’s Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Amr Morsy, said: “We are especially pleased with our latest acquisition of Lacovimp, which has quickly grown to become a market leader in just three years. The acquisition marks our second year-to-date, and our sixth since our initial public offering in December 2019, and we look forward to continuing to deliver on our ongoing acquisition strategy in order to fuel sustainable growth.”
